

For Safety:

All the answers are found on the left side of the road.

Please find the treasure when you are not on the main road

Turn right out of the Village Hall carpark

1. Here, you may eat in the open air – Picnic benches at Reay Shop – but food for a car simply isn't there. no petrol

2. A metal flourish, in sky blue and seafoam green – Peacock on House Suspended in the air so you can see his feathers preened. _____

3. Along the north, small moons fly free – launched in good fun, from these grounds since 1893.

4. I grace the sky, a moss-draped sun – Finials on Church alongside my siblings and roof-perch; we must weigh a tonne. _____

5. These words fade as time peels back the layers – Old Historic Scotland
But within, there is still a place for prayers. sign

6. A bit tight for us but cosy for cottontails – The Warren Beyond these white walls, a human home prevails. _____

7. The trees here stand steady, in rows: nice and neat – Wooden Houses
In groups, they're not a forest; instead, they're a street. _____

8. I stay low and steady, while my neighbours reach for the sky – Ruin in While I'm rustic and humble, they prefer to let industry fly. front of Vulcan

9. In the air, proud and red-faced, I warn passers-by – Caution sign you'll likely see me when saying hello and goodbye. _____

10. I stand at the outskirts, to bid you hello – Dounreay Welcome sign from your nuclear neighbour, who is no longer aglow. _____

11. A quiet wait, kicking legs to and fro – Bus stop when the next one comes, who knows where you will go? _____

Turn right towards Achreamie and Shebster

12. With empty portals and a clear view of the sky – Ruined house
The old stone crumbles with a weary sigh. _____

13. Look out! I tell you, to see the sunset – Bench at West View there's a comfortable place to sit. So don't fret. _____

14. At home, I loom above the hearth – Old fireplace in ruined house looking out at the open sky and fresh earth. _____

15. From the sky we fall in waves – Water towers to give this structure what it craves. _____

Turn right here

16. All standing together, they're ~~nearly~~ of age – Wind turbines all twirling their arms across a grand old stage. _____

17. I leave the earth polished and flat – Roller under me, you'd be crushed like a gnat. _____

18. I bend and bow from years of rain – Barn with bent roof
But still I stand tall for livestock and grain. _____

19. I glide freely across the surf – Boat in garden
but for now, I'll wait atop the turf. _____

Turn right at the T-junction

20. Through sheer force of strength, we hold while you shave – Shearing some hair for a jumper, or something lighter for a heatwave. pen

21. Tumble and crumble, these walls have come down – Shieling running in circles, giving the grass a new crown. _____

22. Along the wood, they flutter and take flight! – Butterflies on wooden
The breadth of their wings catching the light. house

23. Tall, I stand amongst the trees – Sign to Achvarasdal Woods to show you the path, whether you want to enter or leave. _____

24. I stand in the dark, alight in red jewels – Bollard covered in to run into me, you must be a fool! reflectors

25. I love to eat letters, though not those made by Heinz – Post Box
luckily, if you need my help, my mouth has guidelines. _____

26. Would you like to visit by foot or by car? – Parking at Achvarasdal
I'll show you the way, then the woods aren't too far. _____

Turn left at the end of the road

27. Come take a lean. Tired of all the gymnastics? – Cartwheel leaning
It's what I'm made for; when I spin, I feel fantastic! against house

Turn left after the school

28. Look! merry watchers, waiting for winter cheer – Snowmen at dressed in their finery to welcome you here. the Old Inn

Turn left onto the main road

29. Underneath the sand side, and just by the wall – Seasonal We're easy to find but closed after fall. toilets

Treasure (10 points each):

- A knot of grass
- A gorse flower
- A picture of a sheep
- Something to do with a book (you can choose the book!)